About Local 621

Established in 2002, Local 621 UWA is an established union with excellent contracts with over 30 companies covering over 1000 employees. Business agents work full time for the union, and their only obligation is to the members. Their function is to service the contracts, negotiate the contracts, and help unorganized workers, establish the union at their place of employment. We firmly believe our Local Union can help to achieve a greater standard of living for you and your family and to increase respect from management on the job. Join with us for a better tomorrow. Stephen G. Sombrotto, President

Stephen has been an active member of the Union since its inception, and involved in the labor movement over twenty years. Stephen has an innate sense of leadership and has successfully negotiated numerous agreements that have improved the lives of many members. He is married and the father of two.

Javier Ortiz, Vice-President

Javier Ortiz comes from the garbage industry and served as a Shop Steward for many years. Through his hard work, members in the garbage industry were able to gain pension benefits as well as increased wages and time off. Javier has diligently resolved many grievances on behalf of members successfully and remains one of the most respected Stewards in the Garbage industry.

Michael Lovullo, Secretary-Treasurer

Michael Lovullo has been extremely involved in the Union since his assistance was instrumental in organizing workers in New Jersey State. Lovullo along with the bargaining committee was able to resolve an over two year dispute with an Employer in which employees received significant retro-active wages. Lovullo has also won many grievances which have resulted in terminated employees being reinstated.
