

Greetings from your Station Department Team

We wanted to take this time to provide you with an update on what's going on.

Contract: Our Contract is still underway. Management is asking for some ridiculous demands.

MTA Consolidation: As you know, the Chief Station Officer, Rachelle Glazier, has left the NYCT. The MTA has a provision in the Congestion Pricing Law that gave the MTA two months, which expired on June 28, 2019 to review and change the way they do business. We are all waiting for the report to see its impact on every department.

Labor Relations: Our Labor Relations team, led by Division Chairman, Robert Kelley, has trained and developed many successful techniques to get you back to work swiftly while your case is pending. Ms. Nicolette Browne, Mr. Terry Steptoe, Ms. Yolanda Haynes, Mr. Anthony Atria and Mr. Saim Montakim are also some of the labor specialists to serve your needs. Be mindful, we have your best interests at heart and believe in complete honesty with every part of your cases.

General Information: While we continue to show a strong field presence, we have made great strides in getting things repaired and responding to your issues. We are showing management that we are willing to fight! Attending meetings is very crucial during the next three months. We are not waiting for technology to overtake our jobs! We are in the process of developing work duties to compete with the three-year full phase in of the OMNY system.

Vice President's Footnote: It is great seeing many of you out on the road. Please be patient while I try and get to see many of you who helped and supported us during the election. I take great pride in servicing your needs honorably.
