

ON MARCH 27 TAKE THE CONTRACT FIGHT TO ALBANY AT TWU LOCAL 100 LOBBY DAY!

The MTA is telling New York and transit workers that it doesn't have the money to restore service and pay for raises.

Not true.

The MTA CAN PAY.

The MTA can restore needed service and pay transit workers enough to keep our families' heads above water.

Whether the MTA does the right thing is not an economic decision, it is a political decision. It is an Albany decision.

We normally go to Albany with a list of a dozen bills. Not this year.

This year we are going to Albany because we can't afford – and won't accept – three zeroes. Or big increases in healthcare contributions or part-time work.

This year we are going to Albany to say the MTA CAN PAY.

Get on the bus with your fellow Local 100 members on March 27. Take a day to safeguard your family's future.

YES, I WILL ATTEND LOBBY DAY ON MARCH 27, 2012!
