

WANTED BY NYPD

Police need our help in finding the criminal who assaulted our Union brother, Bus Operator Anthony Reid, out of Fresh Pond Depot (photo at right). Why was Brother Reid attacked? He reminded his attacker that MTA rules require passengers to wear a mask on buses. If you see the man shown on the Security Alert below, call MTA Department of Security Command Center at 718-694-4278. We need to get this person off the street and prosecuted.

ISSUED: 07-09-2020 | ALERT # 2020-23

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE/ASSAULT AGAINST BUS OPERATOR PERPETRATOR WANTED BY NYPD

On Sunday, July 5, 2020, at approximately 7:15 am, the individual depicted below allegedly punched a NYCT Bus Operator. He required stitches to close a gash to his head. The alleged perpetrator was last seen wearing a black "NYC" Champion-brand hooded sweatshirt and black shorts with a white stripe on the sides. Anyone with information is asked to call the NYPD's Crime Stoppers Hotline at 1-800-577-TIPS (8477).

All NYCT employees are reminded to immediately report any suspicious persons, unusual encounters or inquiries, or unusual vehicles or packages to their respective operational command centers. The Department of Security Command Center must also be contacted at 718-694-4278 as soon as possible. In an emergency, please call 911 first.

When applicable, NYCT employees are reminded to complete a "Security Incident Tracking System" (SITS) Worksheet. More information and guidance about SITS can be found on MTA Today, within the Department of Security homepage and in Policy Instruction 1.14.00.

This Security Alert will NOT be disseminated outside of MTA/NYCT without the express, written permission of the NYCT Department of Security. These Security Alerts are for MTA/NYCT employee awareness and WILL ONLY BE DISPLAYED IN NON-PUBLIC AREAS OF THE MTA/NYCT SYSTEM. This alert, barring exigent circumstances, will expire sixty (60) days after issuance.
