

Sisters in Transit women's conference

A Two-Day Conference

LEADING, PREPARING FOR CHANGE, AND TAKING ACTION

On March 23 and 24, transit women will join to assess our future and empower each other to take advantage of the opportunities ahead. Spend two days with women from surface, subways, rail and air transit as we discuss the critical issues facing women in our industry and in our communities.

There will be a special presentation honoring the legacy of Fannie Lou Hamer and a keynote address by Clayola Brown, President of the A. Philip Randolph Institute. We will also be joined by U.S. Congresswoman Yvette D. Clarke.

A joint initiative from TWU Local 100 (New York), TWU Local 234 (Philadelphia) and the TWU International

Where: SEIU 1199 Penthouse
330 West 42nd St 33rd floor

When: Friday March 23rd, 8:00am-5:00pm
Saturday, March 24th 9:00am-4:00pm
