

Sisters in Transit women's conference

A Two-Day Conference

TAKE THE LEAD PREPARE FOR CHANGE A CALL TO ACTION

On March 23 and 24, transit women will join to assess our future and empower each other to take advantage of the opportunities ahead. Spend two days with women from surface, subways, rail and air transit as we discuss the critical issues facing women in our industry and in our communities.

With a special presentation honoring the legacy of Fannie Lou Hamer and a keynote address by Clayola Brown, President, A. Phillip Randolph Institute. We will also be joined by U.S. Congresswoman Yvette Clarke.

A joint initiative from: TWU Local 100 (New York), TWU Local 234 (Philadelphia) and the TWU International

Where: SEIU 1199 Penthouse
330 West 42nd St 33rd floor

When: Friday March 23rd, 8:00am-5:00pm
Saturday, March 24th 9:00am-4:00pm

Seating limited | advance registration required.
Open to all TWU women in good standing.
