INJURED ON THE JOB?

It's important to timely file for Workers' Compensation!

1. You may be entitled to cash awards or sick time restoration for time lost from work.
2. You may be entitled to additional cash awards for any permanent injury.
3. Lifetime coverage for medical treatment for permanent disabilities.
4. Payments for reduced earnings if you can work, but not in your regular job, due to injury related partial disability, and you are making less money.

IF INJURED ON THE JOB, YOU SHOULD:

- ✓ Promptly notify your employer - preferably in writing if possible. Tell your union rep too!
- ✓ Seek treatment from a provider who is authorized to treat Workers' Compensation cases.

Call Fusco, Brandenstein & Rada, P.C. for a free, no obligation consultation to learn your rights and responsibilities, and how we can help you maximize all the benefits available to you under Workers' Compensation and other programs.
