

Which Way for the Working Class?

ELECTIONS 2010 AND BEYOND

A conversation on the issues and viewpoints of working men and women at the tipping point—and what can be done to shift the balance this November and beyond.

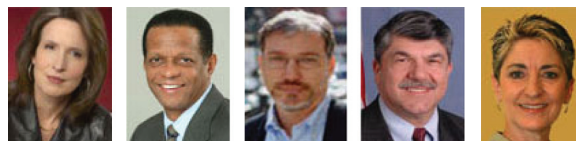

Join Us September 24. This event, hosted by Working America and the AFL-CIO, is free and open to the public. Please RSVP to secure a seat.

WHEN:

Friday, September 24, 2010
3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

WHERE:

The Great Hall at Cooper Union
51 Astor Place
New York, NY 10003

Moderated by Katrina vanden Heuvel, Editor & Publisher, The Nation

Confirmed panelists:

Eric Alterman, Journalist and Senior Fellow, Center for American Progress Action Fund

Bob Herbert, The New York Times

Richard Trumka, President, AFL-CIO

Karen Nussbaum, Executive Director, Working America

To RSVP, please e-mail RSVP@workingamerica.org