

You're Being Paid Eurotrash.

National Express (the puppet master)
is a $3 billion company based in Europe.
Mary Rubino, who most people think is the owner,
sold out to National Express and is now a millionaire.

Dean Finch,
Your Real Boss
national express

Where does that leave you?

Driving for ten hours a day at a "flat rate" of $150
– a day that often gets much longer with no extra pay. That's a wage far below the industry standard for CDL drivers.

Trans Express drivers are being exploited by low wages and abusive schedules. Supervisors discriminate freely and the company keeps drivers in the dark about their rights.

NATIONAL EXPRESS DOESN'T DO "SOCK PUPPETS"
