

Local 100 Members, Join New York's Labor Movement on May Day:

MAY 1, 2011 Rally

1:00 P.M. Foley Square - Worth Street (between Centre & Lafayette)

New York's union are joining together on May 1, 2011. We are rallying to defend jobs, to defend public services, to defend the right to organize and bargain collectively. We are rallying against a free ride for Wall Street, against the scapegoating of immigrants, and against economic policies that cut jobs instead of building America.

We are fighting against policies that:

- make working people pay for the recession
- destroy public services
- attack the wages and pensions of public employees and their right to a union
- cut jobs instead of building America
- blame the lack of jobs on immigrants instead of Wall Street

Why bother? Why don't unions just stick to their contracts?

Because we are all in this together. If we don't fight back together, we will lose together. If we don't push back, the only contracts are going to be giveback contracts. It is as simple as that.

Assemble by the Local 100 banner to the left of the stage.

Why May 1st?

125 years ago on May 1st, working Chicago struck for the 8-hour day – not in one work-place but in every workplace in Chicago. The fight for the 8-hour day was the definitive labor fight of that generation. It is time to press the fight for this generation.
