

*Local 100 to March
Father's Day, June 17, 2012 to . . .*

Local 100 is joining the NAACP, the National Action Network and a number of other union's for a march on Fathers Day June 17th against racial profiling and the NYPD's "Stop and Frisk" policy.

Consider that in 2003, more than 160,000 New Yorkers were stopped by the police. 140,442 were totally innocent (87 percent). 77,704 were black (54 percent). 44,581 were Latino (31 percent), and only 17,623 were white (12 percent).

But under Mayor Bloomberg's administration, in 2011, more than 685,000 New Yorkers were stopped by the police. 605,328 were totally innocent (88 percent). 350,743 were black (53 percent). 223,740 were Latino (34 percent). Only 61,805 were white (9 percent).

WHEN: Sunday, June 17, 2012 • 1:00pm

WHERE: 110th Street and Park Avenue in Harlem. March will continue in a silent procession to Mayor Michael Bloomberg's townhouse on the Upper East Side.

Transport Workers Union, Local 100

*Local 100 to March
Father's Day, June 17, 2012 to . . .*

Local 100 is joining the NAACP, the National Action Network and a number of other union's for a march on Fathers Day June 17th against racial profiling and the NYPD's "Stop and Frisk" policy.

Consider that in 2003, more than 160,000 New Yorkers were stopped by the police. 140,442 were totally innocent (87 percent). 77,704 were black (54 percent). 44,581 were Latino (31 percent), and only 17,623 were white (12 percent).

But under Mayor Bloomberg's administration, in 2011, more than 685,000 New Yorkers were stopped by the police. 605,328 were totally innocent (88 percent). 350,743 were black (53 percent). 223,740 were Latino (34 percent). Only 61,805 were white (9 percent).

WHEN: Sunday, June 17, 2012 • 1:00pm

WHERE: 110th Street and Park Avenue in Harlem. March will continue in a silent procession to Mayor Michael Bloomberg's townhouse on the Upper East Side.

Transport Workers Union, Local 100

